BACKING UP THE LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER

ENFORCEMENT OFFICER

Everyone has been concerned with the serious phases of Hallowe'en activities in the Lindsay district and they are hopeful that those responsible for causing extensive property loss or creating hazardous situations will be brownited. will be brought to task.

will be brought to task.

"Deople generally like to feel that both their property and their person are adequately protected by the law and that those who violate either will be dealth with in a manner which will help them to recognize that lawless actions are not condoned.

In the wake of the most recent lawless activities, there have been disconcerting reports to the effect that police in many parts of Ontario feel that in too many instances it is a thank-less job bringing people before instances it is a tank-less job orninging people before the courts make light of a serious situation and allow the offender to go free, virtually unimpressed with his before the courts make light of a serious situation and allow the offender to go free, virtually unimpressed with his branch with the law. Naturally, if such is the cases, police officers may tend to think twice before they prefer charges seen though they are con-vinced they are warranted. This could lead to a serious vinced they are warranted. This could lead to a serious state of affairs state of attairs.

Justice undoubtedly should be tempered with mercy but not to the extent that it makes law enforcement, officers reluctant to take steps to put a halt to lawless acts which, uncurbed, could make a laughing stock

The law enforcement officers must have the backing of the courts and the people or both will suffer

Once I was part of the forest Tomorrow I likely shal be consumed in flames or stacked for a paper collection or whipped along a windy street to rest finally and decay in silence.
But this is my big moment—for at this moment I ally and decay in silence.

But this is my big moment—for at this moment I attempt to inform you, perhaps entertain you, and, unI am declicated to the reversing of the highlights of your life, from Birth Notices and Wedding Amouncements on through to Memorians. I revel in your accomplishments. Mourn in your time of sorrow.

As your newspaper I am your friend and mirror. Mane is the neighborly content, the friendly account of the community. It may sor at times to burst of literary aspiration, but there is no vain pride to bind me to my basic role of community servant. It will be content if I win the faith and confidence of the majority and on occasions when I feel the majority is misled to retain the respect of the minority.

I make no secret of the fact that I work for a living and I take pride in my craffismaniship—to carry the message of the merchant in the most effective manner. In short, I am Your Home Town Newspaper. In Standard Newspaper Week, a week set saide to bring to the attention of the public just what a newspaper really is, was held recently. It is not something to wrap your garbage into to put on a newly waxed floor to belp keep it clean. A newspaper, whether it is a city daily and in the case, of works new and seems of our world, and in the case of works new and seems of your friends. A buildin of progress and work.

Newspapers are print. People respect print. They believe print. They like print. —Fenelon Falls Gazette

The Board of Broadcasting Governors which wound up public hearings in Ottawa yesterday is expected to have its new television regulations drawn up by November 16th. The heavy weight of opposition to the proposed regulations was offset to some extent by solid support from broadcasting employees' organiza-tions, the Canadian Labor Congress, the Canadian Federation of Agriculture and the broadcasting league.

PRACTICALLY EVERY KNOWN FACTOR HAS FAVORED A HIGH HOUSING RATE

FAVORED A HIGH HOUSING RATE SINCE 1945: 1. There was a considerable backlog of demand resulting from under building during a period of at least 15 years.

2. Not only has the rate of population growth been unusually high, but the factors contributing to that growth have been such as to augment the need for housing—the high rate of net family formation following the war, and the sustained upsurge in the birth rate halting as it did the long-term trend toward smaller

3. The high level of personal income has made possible earlier marriages and family formation at one end of the adult scale age, while since 1952 the Old Age Security payments have enabled many elderly persuns to remain independent householders who would

4. Steadily rising income has been supplemented by a substantial increase in the sources of mortgage credit, partly through legislation embodied in the Na-tional Housing Acts, particularly that of 1954, which provided for lending terms that assisted the low- and middle-income groups to become home-owners.

5. The long-trend movement of population from rural to urban locations, and from urban to suburban residential areas in the metropolitan districts has resulted in a wide-spread shifting of domicile and change in living

Rapid resource development has greatly expanded the area of settlement, and in a number of cases created entire new towns.

7. The differential between the cost of owning and renting has tended over most of the period to favor the former. Between 1949 and 1957 rents as a whole had increased 38 per cent while home-ownership costs has risen less than 31 per cent. (Within the past year

MUNCIPALITIES FEEL TIGHT MONEY

Municipalities may complain, with justification, of the high cost of borrowing. The range of seven recent debenture issues by Quebec municipalities was 6.9 to 7.8 per eent. The lending agency of the Ontario gover-ernment charges 7.25 per cent. An interest charge in excess of 7.75 per cent over a 20-year term more than equals the amount horrowed

Municipalities, unlike corporations and individu are unable to save in the present for spending in the future. All income, all expenditure, are current. The only way a major expenditure, like that for a new school or paving a road, can be financed is by borrowing. The burden of borrowing costs which, over a 20-year term, amount to a dollar for a dollar is an excessive load upon amount to a dollar for a dollar is an excessive load upon Lapayers aiready burdened.

One proposal is for a bank, financed by the Federal government and charging "reasonable" interest rates, from which municipalities may borrow at less than market costs. A more practical proposal is exemption of municipal securities from taxes which limit the value of these assertions. these securities to the investor. They must be made more attractive on counts other than gross return if municipalities are to keep their services

The municipalities have borrowed extensively over last few years. The rapid increase in population has placed a heavy burden of road, school and social costs on them which will not be soon lightened. Municipal borrowing has more than doubled over the last few years. It is expected to increase another 25 per cent

While conceding the difficulties confronting m White conceding the difficulties controlling muni-cipalities, however, it should be noted that municipal management, no less than corporate management, is prone to the boom psychology. All too often, municipal spending has been approached on a hang-the-cost basis the argument that "nothing is too good for ourtown" carrying the day.

ying the day.

Some of the stress imposed on municipalities could be relieved by a return to the thrifty assessment of every proposa! to spend which, not so long ago, was the parti-cular, and much desired, characteristic of local govern-

"I STAND BEFORE YOU . . ."
"I stand before you with no jeolousy, no pride, no bitterness against any race or any nation in the whole world." These words were spoken by Chief Walking Buf-laio, 88-year-old former chief of the Stopy Indians of Western Canada, as he arrived at the Moral Re-Armament Summit Stardard. Michi-Summit Startegy Conference on Mackinae Island, Michigan. He was received by Dr. Frank Buchman, initiator of Moral Re-Armament, thus renewing a friendship of long standing, and by a force of 500 from many nations. The Chief is on the first leg of a world tour

"I am an old man-nearly 89 years old. I know that if God wasn't in me and with me, I wouldn't be here, and I wouldn't have the strength to make any trip

I'm going on this world mission because God told me to go tell the people there all about Moral Re-Armament. Moral Re-Armameht is the one thing the world needs. It is the light in the darkness of these days.

But an alien people has occupied their land. The suffering have been bitter. And they, a proud and noble race, have been forced to their knees before a blind, machine-run people from the old world. Quiet and dignified, the Chief tells stories and phil-

Turning towards the window, he looks out across the cold and stormy straights of Mackinac to the nearby island. The trees are the deep brown of mid-autumn. The sky is a cloud-strewn blue above.

"People ask me which university I went to." Twink-ling he tells "I always say I went to the highest university of all—Nature! That's the best education!

"You see that island there? You see the trees?
Well, that is just the world as God means it to be.
Those trees have all kinds of different names—they are different colors, different shapes, different sizes. But they all grow up straight towards the sky together.

"There is no quarrelling, no bickering between them. No encroaching. Some die and fall to earth, and rot. And they are used to help the young trees grow. Some are crooked, some bent over, but they still grow peace-ably together with the other ones.

"Nature's university is the best of all. I have studied on horseback, on foot, on the mountains, in the forests —everywhere I go in the open air. It is the only complete university.

"Books are not permanent. They don't say every-thing. Then they die away; maybe they get outside in the open—sun, wind, rain, and all the print and paper disappears. "In Moral Re-Amanment we have four absolute moral standards—honest, portly unefishines, love—and then unity. Like four fingers and thumbs on your hand. All twe help you to have a firm grip to be able to do something. God will guide and do the rest.

"My people know that we belong to America, just like the buffalo does. That's what I believe.

OPS AND ITS ASSESSMENT PROBLEMS

OPS AND ITS ASSESSMENT PROBLEMS:

OPS Township ratepyeers are concerned, and rightly the concerned of the property of the prop been a need for revising not only assessments but assess-ment methods across the province but, in the light of what Ops ratepayers were told at an open meeting this week, there is another facet of this assessment problem week, there is another facel of this assessment problem which needs focking into. Retapeave were told by Vic-toria County's assessor that the main qualification a willingness to take on the job at the usually nominal pay which was prevailing. To this we must take exception. Assessment is a vital work and it should only be done by competent people who have sufficient know-ledge of land and building values to appraise a property correctly. An incompetent assessor could work to the correctly. An incompetent assessor could work to the disadvantage of the ratepayers if he hadn't the know-ledge and ability to use any established assessment guides intelligently even to the extent of going contrary to pre-scribed "yardsticks" if the situation warranted it.

EAST SANDLING CAMP

There's an isolated, desolated spot I'd like to mention Where all you hear is "Stand at Ease," "Slope Arms," "Quick March," "Attention."

It's miles away from anywhere, by Gad, it is a rum 'un, A chap lived there for fifty years and never saw a woman. There are lots of little huts, all dotted here and there,

For those who have to live inside, I've offered many a prayer

Inside the huts there's RATS as big as any nanny goat,

Last night a soldier saw one trying on his overcoat

It's sludge up to your eyebrows, you get it in your ears, But into it you've got to go, without a sign of fear, And when you've had a bath of sludge, you just set to and groom, And get cleaned up for next Parade, or else, it's "Orderly Room,"

Week in, week out, from morn till night, with full Pack and a Rifle.

Like Jack and Jill, you climb the hills, of course that's just a trifle. 'Fix Bayonets," then "Present," they June 4 "Fix Bayonets," tuen fairly put you through it."

And as you stagger to your hut, the Sergeant shouts "Jump to it."

With tunics, boots and puttees off, you quickly get the habit

You gallop up and down the hills just like a blooming

"Heads backward bend," "Arms upward stretch," "Heels raise," then "Ranks change places,"

And later on they make you put your kneecaps where your face is. Now when this war is over and we've captured Kaiser

To shoot him would be merciful and absolutely silly, Just send him down to EAST SANDLING there among the Rats and Clay, And I'll bet he won't be long before he droops and fades away.

A large flock of snow geese, the first ever seen by residents of Fenelon Falls, passed over there this date

Leaving Area Argyle Couple Receive Gifts

Argyle (PNS) A large crowd of school mates, relatives, friends and neighbors gathered in Argyle School to honour Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hopkins ere their departure for their new home in Beaverton.

The evening's program opened with some playing euchre and dancing to the music supplied by the Smith Bros. and Mr. Lorne Brown of Beav

Mr. Poter MacEachern asked Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins to come to the front, while he read the following address:

Dear Lizzie and Charlie:-We, your school mates, re-latives, friends and neighbors have gathered here in this old schoolroom again to extend to you, our regrets of your departure from our midst. We regret you are leaving our community. You have lived and grown up with us.

Your friendship and help has always been freely given, has always been freely given, your door was always open to us all and many were the friendly cups of tea we enjoyed in your home. You were a good neighbor, always ready with a willing and helping hand where help was needed. And to have a good neighbor is have one of life's triched treasurers, and richest treasurers, and we know that your new neighbors will find the same sincerity and helpfulness we have en-

So we are happy this even-ing to have the opportunity of extending to you both, our best wishes for health and happiness for the future in your new home, and we trust that you will have many happy years of retired life with more ease, which you both greatly deserve.

We, your Argyle and Bol-sover friends ask you to ac-cept these gifts as a token of cept these gifts as a token of our esteem and friendship and hope you will enjoy it for many years and as you use them may it recall the good days at Argyle and Bolsover. Signed on behalf of your neighbors and friends, Peter MacEacher, Cecil Nicholls. Peter Imrie and Garnet Peel.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholls were presented with a desk and four folding chairs. Charlie and Lizzie each expressed their thanks in a few well chosen words and invited everyone to visit them in their new home. "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" was sung Lucheon was served and dancing was resumed and a good time was had by all.

Getting to the Church Ahead of Time Possibly Averted Serious Fire

A case of "getting to the church shead of time." possib-ly averted a serious fire at the Long Point United Church on

When the caretaker arrived at the church shortly after 7.30 a.m. Sunday, some two hours earlier than is normal, he found the building enveloped in smoke. An emergency call to nearby Kirkfield volunteer Fire Department brought quick response.

It was later ascertained that a portion of flooring had been burned by a spark from a nearby stove.

A spokesman for the church told "The Post" it was thought the fire had smouldered from the previous Friday evening. It was disclosed that a fow supper was held at the church on that evening.

Hallowe'en is past but it is likely to be remembered for a long time by the people of this district. Many

In a nearby village one of these unrecorded incidents has been recounted by its residents. It is a tale of inhas meen recommend by its features. It is a safe of many credible cruelty perpetrated on defenseless creatures. Briefly, this is the story: Human beings invaded a chicken house, removed several birds, took them to another point in the village and tore them timb from limb —

What manner of people are these who would inflict

Truth is sometimes more fiendish than fiction and no rebuke could be too scathing for those responsible for the dastardly act related above.

PROFITS AND WACES

The following United Press International news story is undoubtedly going to cause a lot of people to thin

Chicago, Nov. 5-- (UPI)--R. J. Marlatte, President of the Amercian Industrial Management Society says it will take the steel industry and the steelworkers 10 years to make up for the losses in wages and profits suffered in the current strike.

Marlatte, of Chicago, told a convention of Industrial Engineers that strike losses to steelworkers amounted to 70 million dollars a week, and the probable loss in profits to the industry was four to five billion dollars.

Of course, the aforegoing is only part of the story :. the effects of the strike have now become wide-pread in other industries and are apparent right here

Over the weekend, in conversation with motor can dealer Graydon King, it was learned that the steel strike has made just the difference between a profitable fall sales season and one which makes it uninteresting to

Reterance is make in the news story to the iscu-tatal losses in wages to the steelvor/teers now stand at an estimated $70 million dollars and that loss of pro-fits to the industry is between four and five billion dollars. We are not prepared to comment on this but it would be interesting to have the unbigged onir of an economist as to the differential between wages

Those who subscribe to the private entery Indee wao subscribe to the private enterprise system all recognize that profits must be made in order to interest capital investment but excessive profits do not contribute to a healthy national economy any more than do excessive wage demands. It has been said that the present steel strike is an 'Armageddon' for unionism . . . It would be better if

'Armageddon' for unionism . . . It would be better if it were an awakening for both sides, an awakening which would make each acutely aware of the fact that strikes, like wars, leave both sides losers. There is a sign currently much in use by traffic divisions of police departments which reads "Yield" ... It should be applied by both sides in management-labor disputes.

It may be pure coincidence but the unexpected October lat decision of Moscow consumer good stores to let Ivan and Katrina start purchasing on the instalment plan came right on the heels of Mr. K's return home after his trip to the land where buying on time is as much a way of life as singing con coffee breaks and ten-gailon hats in Texas.

Coincidence or not, one thing emerges clearly: Russian women are no different from their sisters in Paris or Toronto or San Francisco. The Associated Press despatch, noting the start of the buy-now, pay later plan for Muscovites, reported that am items in greatest demands were silver fox furs Russian twist on the standard plan is that periodic payments due are not made to the store, but are de-ducted from the purchaser's pay cheque by his em-ployer. Our system is better. Who wants the boss to ow that we're buying a shotgun on time?

held in Peterborough.

Mrs. George Moore gave an interesting talk and showed pictures of the Korean child they had adopted through the Foster Parents Plan. They hope to be able to continue this work until her adopted daughter, now ten years old, will have finished her education. Mrs. T. Jackson led the study period, showing the map of Africa and reminding of the different Missionaries that have served there, known to the members. The remainder of her talk centred on Rhodesia which is the latest and newer field "The way white men are exploiting the African does a lot to undo the ork of the missionaries. It is work of the missionaries. It is high time people are awaken-ed to the needs of the African. Delay is dangerous." The Thankoffering was re-ceived and dedicated. After the benediction the hostess served lunch and a social hour was enjoyed.

Tonight is The night of its providing to pick up.

It is the night of its poort this time, the club makes a tensewise pickup of new and uset loves for distribution at Christmass among children in Lindary who night otherwise not receive any. Those of us who have seen how members of the club go to work on the toys which lend themselves to reconditioning, supericate just how much time and effort is put into the project. Not only that, the refinished products of the Kimmen toy we the shop are really reconstitutions of the Kimmen toy we the shop are really reconsistent of the Rimmen toy we the whost families have loys in the home which have hardly been used . . . In many cases there are toys which have held tittle more done to them than have the wrappings of Christmasser's past removed. The Kinsmen Club would appreciate it if these surplus and little used toys were left under the porchäght at your home

A toy shared is a joy shared at Christmas for some

This is THE night for the porch-light toy pickup.

LEADERS COME FROM THE DISCONTENTED

LEADERS COME FROM THE DISCONTENTED
We are inclined to discount the role of the discontented in the matter of progress. The self-assisted —the lays—the "status quo" members are not the pioneers of any town or organization. The non-conformist, the man who sees the need and is disstatisfied with things as they are, the persons who sees what should be done, and who cannot rest until it has been accomplished—and who cannot rest until it has been accomplished as they are, the persons who sees what should be done, and who cannot rest until it has been accomplished—these are the men who are responsible for the major endewments in community affairs. CAR PERMITS AT BORDER ABOLISHED

The 4,000 mile border between the United States and Canada—unguarded for migh on 150 years by guns or barbed wire—is becoming more and more an "imaginary line". Much progress has been made recently on both sides to facilitate crossings and encourage neighborly visits back and forth by reducing "red tape" at ports of entry.

Latest move in this direction by the Canadian government was instituted October 1st when an order was issued under which Canadians entering the U.S. on pleasure trips are no longer required to fill out auto-

Turning Back The Calendar

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 18th
This date 60 years ago many of the district deer hunting enthusiats were returning to their respective homes after a good season. Many made a very fine show of game while others were not quite as successful.

As is still happening today, they too, had their share of shooting accidents.

Many hunters came home with bears, which is very seldom accounted for in this day.

The commander of the NATO Atlantic Fleet says Soviet missile-firing submarines will be a threat to NATO within a year. Admiral Jerauld Wright told the NATO parliamontarians' conference in Washington that in view of the Soviet threat "drastic measures" are being taken to develop and improve anti-stubmarine defenses.

The western powers are reportedly nearly ready to propose a late April date for an East-West summit conference with Russia. American, British, French and West German representatives met in Washington to discuss the time and place for meeting Soviet Premier Khrush-chev. The summit talks are expected to be held in

The U.N. general assembly's 82-nation political com-mittee begins debate this morning (at 10-30 EST) on a novid atomic ban proposal. India is leading a bloc of 20 Afro-Asians and Yugoslavia in demanding that all world powers stop nuclear testing. The move is believed to be atmed primarily at France, which plans its first atomic test next spring.

British West German pre-summit auss are reported making progress. West German Chancellor Adenauer and Prime Minister MacAillan called off today's formal working session and instead funched together at the German Embassy in London. The two western leaders are working out a three-point agenda to be offered at an East-West summit conference with the Soviets.

The Secretary to Sit Winston Churchin announces that the aged statesman has recovered from the slight illness which troubled him yesterday. The illness forced Churchill to cancel a meeting with Chancellor Adenauer . . . but is is said to be all over with now. 100 YEARS ... ONE CENTURY

100 YEARS . . . ONE CENTURY
There are many things which could be written concerning the 100th anniversary of the tounding of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church at Lindsay. The bistorical developments which have highlighted the church's career could be elaborated on at length; deserving tribute could be paid to the clergy who have devoted their life's energy to the furtherance of Christianity in this community; special mention could made of the Sisters of St. Jospeh's Academy and of all those hundreds of people who have helped the parish grow in strength and vigour.

This we will leave to those more adequately equipped to so do.

We would, however, like to take this opportunity of extending every good wish to St. Mary's Church and all those associated with it on this memorable centen-

Town Council's decision to allocate up to $6,000 to make certain repairs to the Lindsay Arena is not meeting with popular public approval. There is a growing feeling that more than a "blow-out" patch is needed at

Lindsay is now face to face with a hard fact...The arena is, and has been for sometime, in a state of dis-repair which represents an accumulation of neglect over a period of years. This state of affairs did not come

As to the future, consideration must be give the various aspects of arena and recreation centre oper-ation. In considering this, it is inescapable that the present situation be viewed in terms of town-operated project. It has not been a successful venture, even from the standpoint of normal maintenance. In looking to the future, thoughts must necessarily be directed to-wards the type of sponsorship which will be required to ensure a greater degree of operational success and

THE INCREASING IMPORTANCE OF EDUCATION

Champions of automation insist that more jobs are created as a result of advanced mechanization as are Oractee as a result, on a avalation the international as a food of the available and the available and training. Making this point in an interview with The Financial Times this week in Montreal, William Thomson, director of employment services for Canada, stated that through its job counselling service, the National Employment Service emphasizes the economic hazards confronting job seekers who possess only a limited education.

A survey of the educational standing achieved by unemployed persons registered with 200 N.E.S. branches across the country Mr. Thomson said, verifed a hitherto guessed-at direct relationship between unemployment guessed the creationship between timeliproment and educational limitations. Compiled statistics showed that, while 55 per cent of the male working force had not advanced beyond grade 8, over 70.2 per cent of those seeking work were in the limited-education group.

seeking work were in the limited-education group. During periods of inflation, it was pointed out, youths are often lized from school by the provocative specific properties. The provided properties of the down-downs, these young as meeting the provided ers, unless they have been specially trained, are the first to be laid off. Usually less qualified than other, they are often replaced by better trained or more exper-tenced workers who become available on the labour

Thus a new problem is posed for educational authorities in the country; the problem of making every attempt to keep students in school until graduation at least. This would naturally involve a need for more schools and more teachers and, an important factor, greater expenditures on education by provinces and municipalities.—The Financial Times

HOUSING FOR OLD PEOPLE

Some useful points about housing for old people were noted in a recent BBC General Overseas Service broadcast by a reporter who had been to see a new housing centre specially designed for very old people recently opened in Britain. The points for pingging in electric equipment, for instance, were three feet from the floor to avoid bending and stooping, and the wir dows had low sills so that an elderly person sitting down would have a good view. Each of the one-roomed flats was decorated in a slightly different color, scheme, but all were in pale colors and had big windows to provide the maximum of light. In one wall a series of doors con-cealed a ventilated food store, a kitchen with a white sink, a tiny electric cooking stove, small cupboards and a wardrobe cupboard for clothes. In these flatlets the elderly can call on the help of the warden if they need it, although they are entirely free and independent

The hunting season in Ontario annually sends sky-rocketing the number of convictions for one of the most dangerous game law violations—carrying loaded fire-arms in motor cars and power boats. Two years ago, for example, convictions for this type of offence jumped from 37 in September to 80 in October.

Compartive figures are not available yet for this fall, of course, but Conservation Officers of the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests believe that the numher actually caught and convicted represent only a frac-tion of the number of careless hunters who transport lowed filearms in such a manner as to be a menace to

Speaking of livery business days recalls the almost incredible fact that there were days, right in this community, when many of its residents didn't even have a horse and buggy to get them over the ground . . . They depended solely on 'shank's mare. 'The picture above shows a stretch of road familiar to many Mariposa Township residents. It is the '8th Concession' of the township and one of the ploneer roads which linked the central part of the township with the 'roads and the part of the township with the 'roads and the part of the township with the 'roads and the part of the township with the 'roads and the part of the township with the 'roads and the part of the township with the 'roads and the part of the township with the 'roads and the part of the township with the 'roads and the part of the township with the 'roads and the part of the township with the 'roads and the part of are idld of how pioneer settlers trudged this route to Lindsay, often with back-breaking loads and before it was really a road. It was not unusual, they recal, they real, settler to walk seven or eight miles along this an early selller to walk seven or eight miles along, this trail with a bag of grain on his back to a grist mill in Linday and then trudge back the next day with a sack of flour. In the meantime mother and the small family kept the home fires burning in the log cabin set in the clearing they had gouged until of then heavily-forested fam. Wolves, the tellers of these takes recall, were never for away and on some occasions they would even here. If the control of the control of the control of the trail were the service of the control of the trail of the control of the control of the trail of the control of the trail of the control of the trail of trail o never in a way and no some occasions they wought ex-scale the roofs of the low-slung cabins and make the chills creep up and down the spines of those inside with their blood-crutling how be. But to get back to the road pictured above . . This is no longer a trail of endurance for man and heats but rather a pleasant coun-try road which cuts through some of the lushest farm-land in Mariotac, hermeblus est, it winds account if row land in Mariposa township as it winds across it from the Ops boundary on the east to the Brock boundary on the Ops boundary on the east to the Brock boundary on the west. The events of other years have left no scars, but there is nothing to recall the hardships endured by those who pioneered the way when this now well-gravelled road was only a blazed trail through the forest.

Women of the Moose Held Annual Tea and Bazaar

The Women of the Moose had a very busy and success-ful annual tea and bazaar which they held recently in the Moose Hall, Lindsay. The main hall, where the tea and bazaar was held was taste-fully decorated with a Christ-mas tree, lovely vases of flow-ers and small trees. The centre table was a symphony of silver and white with two beautiful silver tea sets, silver candlesticks with three white candles, and an exotic centrepiece of silver leaves, red and white candy sticks, and silver and colored glass Christmas balls. In a smaller room was the home-bake table filled with delicious cakes, cookies, preserves and home-made bread and a table where tickets could be purchased for the draw for an enormous turkey. Tickets were also on sale here for a prize of $100.

The convenor was Mrs. Jack Bell and decorations convenor was Mrs. A. Barnsley. These two ladies also poured the tea. Receiving were Mrs. William White and Mrs. Murray fram white and Mrs. Murray Gordon. The busy treasurer was Mrs. Mildred Price. Kit-chen convenor was Mrs. Earl Cragg assisted by members. WHAT HAS LINDSAY IN MIND?

WHAT HAS LINDAY IN MIND?

The cilizens of Prince George. B.C., apparently have something which the people of Lindsay haven't got and yet this fact could neither be attributed to the different nisze of the two towns (they're about the same), nor to Lindsay's inability to attain that to which reference is made.

Enough of obscurity.

Enough of obscurity.

What Prince George has that Lindsay has not, is a twelve-man action committee whose objective is to alleviate seasonal unemployment in the district by enceur-sping winter work programs wherever practical.

The Prince George memspaper has gone all-out in support of the program as have many of the business people in the area. Typical evidence of this support is contained in the following excerpts from an advertisement aponsored by Prince George Baheries and appearing in the secondary from the project have their origin in the mind of one man but it lakes the combined efforts of many to bring such projects to a successful conclusion. Here in Prince George, it has at last been suggested we do something George, it has at last been suggested we do something Georga, it has at last been suggested we do something constructive about the problem of seasonal unemployment. The idea has caught on. Even new, a twelve-man action committee—perseanting business, industry, labor, government and the general public—is formulating plans. Mavor Carrie Jane Gray issued the following proclamation in connection with the movement: "The citizens of Prince George are hereby requested to give their whole-hearted co-operation in this drive against seasonal unemployment which is being waged by the seasonal unemployment which is being waged by the National Employment Services of the Carrier of the National Employment Services of the National Employment Services or a service of the National Employment Services or a service of the National Employment Services or as the National Employment Services or a service of the National Employment Services or as the National Services o by planning now, to do your repairs, renovations or ad-ditions this winter when men and materials are avail-able. I hereby proclaim the period from October 6th to January 7th as the National Employment Service's 'Plan

What has Lindsay in mind to help co unemployment which is showing some signs of increas-ing throughout the province? This might make a good ing unougnout the province? This might make a good topic for nomination night speakers, although time is admittedly a little on the short side. Nevertheless, it seems there is a need for giving consideration to this problem here and now before the peak unemployment period is upon us. What do you think, aspiring members in Council and citizens is expectable. to Council and citizens in general?

THE UNSOLVED GERMAN PROBLEM

The Western leaders should not now trade suspi-cion for gullibility. They would be wise to refuse to be lulled into a sense of false security by the Khrushchev political act before TV cameras or while visiting the political act before TV cameras or while visiting the United States. He has not made a single concession in one; he has more than shifted his policy toward Russia.

He has done a complete about face from the long-standing, rigid policy of no retreat, no negotiation, no summit. That is enough.

The men of the Kremlin have never had the slightest intention of bringing together the governments of Walter Ulbricht the Communist, and that of Konrad Adenauer of Western Germany. Khrushchev does not Authorities and the second deep and the communist regime over West Germany, the state which he considers his last barrier in Central Europe. Berlin is just an extra canker in the side of Communism to add to the paramount significance of the German issue in Moscow's syes.

On the solution of the German question the fale of Europe will hamp for decades. The West will be lucky if it is not used as the trigger for a test of the advantage in ICBM power which Russia will hold during the Massile Gap between 1960 and 1962. It shows not be forgotten that the motive behind Russia's Cold War tactics in no longer foer of attack. Armay is no modern to the replace fear, and that is a dangerous thing in the time of hardwall which is swiftling the control of the c of blackmall which is swiftly approaching.

EACH YEAR AT THIS TIME....
Each year at this time, the fatality toll takes a sudden jump as early darkness and slippery roads combine to make driving conditions the most hazardous of the year, the All Canada Insurance Federation warns.

Safe winter driving demands extra precautions and the Federation, representing more than 250 fire, casu-alty and automobile insurance firms, offers these suggestions to the motorist:

1) Slow down. "Normal" speeds are excessive on slippery streets.

2) Watch carefully for pedestrians who may be dressed in dark clothing and unable to see because of scarves and parkas.

 If you expect to do a considerable amount of driving under adverse conditions, invest in snow tires 4) If your car skids, turn your wheels in the direc-
